

The Guild of The Royal Canadian Dragoons

AFFILIATED CADET CORPS BURSARY

Background

---

In 2022, The Guild of The Royal Canadian Dragoons initiated a program to recognize deserving cadets in each of our three affiliated Cadet Corps (2332-763 (Ottawa) Maj EJG Holland VC, 2870 RCD, and 137 RCD RCACC) to support the pursuit of post-secondary education and recognize these future community leaders. Annually, one bursary per affiliated Cadet Corps will be awarded at $1,000.

Application Criteria

- Completed application form;
- Must be a currently serving cadet or have been a cadet within the last 12 months with an RCD affiliated Cadet Corps;
- Confirmation of acceptance from an accredited post-secondary program, to include CEGEP;
- Complete secondary school transcript, including interim grades;
- Letter of reference or support (no more than three) from an individual familiar with your academic background, community service, or personal history; and
- Biographical sketch (1000 words) highlighting your experiences with the cadets and how that has shaped your leadership skills, community involvement, and future goals.

Timelines

- Applications are due to the RCD Guild Secretary by 15 August via email to; Secretary@Dragoons.ca
- Selections will be officially confirmed no later than 15 September; and
- Presentations will occur at the Annual Leliefontein Parade in November at CFB Petawawa.
